For Members

MEMBER'S OPENING DAY

Thursday, May 2 ~ 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

We have reserved a special opening day just for members! You are invited to be among the first of the season to take a self-guided walk through the garden and take in the stunning cherry tree and star magnolia blossoms that herald spring, subject to Mother Nature's whim, of course! Arrive early to enter a drawing for a free jar of Greenwood honey and sip on a refreshing glass of iced tea at the Teahouse. Our Visitor Services staff and volunteers will be on hand to greet you, offer short tours, and share archival photos that will take you back in time through Greenwood's history. Enjoy refreshments and peruse the gift shop before you leave. You are invited to bring up to two guests, free of charge.

Free to members

OPENING DAY

Friday, May 3 ~ 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Let nature, beauty, and history revitalize all your senses this season! Today marks our opening day when you are invited to explore every nook and cranny of the garden. As the garden comes alive, there is much to take in. Marvel at the early blossoms and linger on a comfortable bench as you relax to the gentle sound of water gurgling in the stately fountains. Stroll down to the farm allée where you can watch our resident geese frolic in the ponds.

Free to members; General admission applies

TAI CHI IN THE GARDEN

Thursday, May 9 ~ 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

With Carl Klemme, Owner,
Glow Yoga Center

Lean into the ancient Chinese technique of Tai Chi, a graceful form of exercise, akin to meditation in motion, through which various self-defense forms are strung together in a fluid, slow-motion sequence. The result is a quieter mind, reduced stress, and improved balance, posture, and strength. Surrounded by the beauty of Greenwood Gardens, our experienced instructor will demonstrate a variety of short Tai Chi flows that you can enjoy practicing at home.

$15 members, $20 non-members

Open to 15 participants

TWILIGHT TOUR

Tuesday, May 14 ~ 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Unwind from a long day at work with a glass of wine, wedge of cheese, and a guided ramble through the Main Axis. Stop on the Croquet Terrace where you can kick off your shoes on the plush lawn to experience "grounding," a technique that electrically reconnects you to the earth. You'll be sure to heighten your senses and feel ready for the week ahead.

$20 members, $25 non-members

Open to 20 participants

Peter P. Blanchard III Lecture Series

WHAT'S IT REALLY WORTH?

Sunday, May 19 ~ 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

With Nick Dawes, Senior Vice President
Heritage Auctions, NY

Join Antiques Roadshow expert appraiser Nick Dawes for an informal and informative appraisal session. Attendees are encouraged to bring two small items that Nick will evaluate during the session. Please note: items NOT to bring include: photographs of objects, gemstone jewelry, rare coins, sports memorabilia, and books. Greenwood is not responsible for damaged, lost, or stolen items.

$30 members, $35 non-members

Open to 70 attendees

GREENWOOD ON THE ROAD

– BUS TRIP

Andalusia, Historic House, Garden, and Arboretum in Andalusia, Pennsylvania

Wednesday, May 22 ~ 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Just 13 miles upstream from Philadelphia in Bucks County, Andalusia is the ancestral country estate of the Craig and Biddle families dating back more than 200 years. Tour through the Greek Revival home with its monumental columned porch and furnished in a variety of American period styles. On the estate grounds, view such features as the Billiard Room, a Gothic grotto, and the Cottage — all circa 1815-1852. Then it will be off to the gardens, with numerous outbuildings and the Walled Garden, where Nicholas Biddle's graperies long-ago once stood. Lunch and snacks included as well as restroom facilities aboard our luxury bus. Bus departs promptly at 8:30 a.m.

$165 members, $175 non-members

Open to 37 participants

SPRING PLANT WALK

Thursday, May 23 ~ 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.

With Sonia Uyterhoeven,
Head of Horticulture

Join this informative tour during which Sonia will review spring gardening chores and the wide variety of the season's blossoms. Feel free to walk about the garden until noon on your own.

$15 members, $20 non-members

Open to 20 participants

Music and Dance in the Garden Series

THE AAPI JAZZ COLLECTIVE

Friday, May 24 ~ 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Rain date, Saturday, May 25

Generously sponsored by Stone
Mountain Properties

The Music and Dance series kicks off with the AAPI Jazz Collective, led by Peter Lin on trombone and featuring vocalist Tammy Huynh, which specializes in performing a classic repertoire from Asian cultures reimagined within a jazz context. Attendees are invited to stroll through the garden starting at 5:30 p.m., and enjoy complimentary wine and cheese served under the tent on the West Terrace at 6:00 p.m. before the music starts at 6:30 p.m. Prepare to be enchanted!

Creative Arts Day EN PLEIN AIR PAINTING, SKETCHING, AND PHOTOGRAPHY FOR ENTHUSIASTS

Wednesday, May 29 ~ 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Whatever your preferred mode of creating art, en plein air artists of all skill levels are invited to practice at Greenwood on this day. Use of watercolors, pastels, pen and ink, photography, sketching, and journaling are welcome. There are limited slots for oil painting, due to the sensitive nature of the garden. Our century-old site offers magical views, iconic Arts & Crafts follies, stately fountains, and ample space in which to feel at home. What's more, you might meet up with a skilled photographer for a mini-workshop, a professional botanic artist who can provide some special tips, or former students of our beloved Co-founder, the late Peter P. Blanchard III, who can share the special methodologies and principals he developed over his lifetime growing up on the estate. Artist easels and tripods are permitted provided they are not placed in the planted beds and pathways are not blocked. Drop cloths required for painting.

$10 members, $15 non-members
Open to 25 participants (includes 5 oil painting slots)

MEDITATION WALK

Thursday, May 30 ~ 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

With Carl Klemme, Owner,
Glow Yoga Center

In this session, you will learn and practice meditation and mindfulness, approaches to quieting the mind that can enhance sleep, support heart health, and provide a boost to your immune system. There will be some breathing practices and a practical exploration of the ideal posture for sitting still. We will enjoy our practice of meditation in various beautiful locations in the garden which always enhances the experience of inner stillness. Participants will be provided with take-home resources to support an ongoing practice of meditation. These sessions are perfect for those new to meditation, while more experienced practitioners are bound to learn something new as they enjoy the benefits of sitting with a group.

$15 members, $20 non-members

Rain date; Saturday, September 7

Dance begins at 6:30 p.m.

Generously sponsored by Stone
Mountain Properties

Dancer, adventurer, and ardent defender of the free spirit, Isadora Duncan (1877-1927) is credited with inventing what came to be known as Modern Dance. With free-flowing costumes, bare feet, and loose hair, she took to the stage inspired by the ancient Greeks, the music of classical composers, the wind, and the sea. Since 1980, the legacy of her unique style and repertoire has been carried forward by Lori Belilove & The Isadora Duncan Dance Company, the resident performing troupe of its namesake foundation. This performance represents the troupe's third performance at Greenwood, simply a magical experience! Beforehand, take a leisurely stroll in the garden starting at 5:30 p.m., and enjoy complimentary wine and cheese at 6:00 p.m. Main Lawn seating.

Open and free to 16 members

CHRISTMAS BIRD COUNT

Saturday, December 21 ~ 12 p.m. to 3 p.m.

With Carl Woodward, Greenwood
Trustee and Avid Birdwatcher

The National Audubon Society's Christmas Bird Count (CBC) is the world's longest-running citizen science survey in which volunteer birdwatchers throughout North America take a census of wild bird sightings. For the fourth year in a row, Greenwood will serve as a survey site. Participants will seek out the birds that winter here and findings will be reported to the Watchung Ridge Count and ultimately, to the annual report of North American bird sightings. Meet in the Cottage Parking Lot by 12:00 p.m. Basic bird identification knowledge helpful but not necessary. Dress warmly, with sturdy footwear and good gloves. Bring binoculars and bird guides. Cameras welcome. Rain or shine.

Free

Open to 25 participants
